

For innovative information solutions to meet current and emerging needs, start here.

Today, more than ever, community colleges play a vital role in the education environment. Working adults who want to finish up a degree program, displaced employees who need to learn new skill sets for a career change, and those who are simply looking for a cost-effective alternative to larger universities can all benefit from community college offerings. Providing appropriate resources for such a diverse group of users can be a challenge for community college libraries, particularly when budgets and staffing levels are being carefully reviewed.

ProQuest can help you meet that challenge; confident in our ability to build solutions for your library, now and into the future. Consider our extensive selection of products to address multiple disciplines.

Featured Products

ABI/INFORM®

With over 4,055 journals, ABI/INFORM Complete™ is the most comprehensive business database on the market today, offering more than 2,965 full-text titles covering business and economic conditions, corporate strategies, market research, management techniques, and competitive analysis.

With continuously growing global content, award-winning search technology, and an intelligent, meticulous approach to indexing, ABI/INFORM remains the industry standard for business research.

ABI/INFORM is available in the following editions:

- ABI/INFORM Complete™
- ABI/INFORM Select™
- ABI/INFORM Global™
- ABI/INFORM Trade & Industry™
- ABI/INFORM Research™
- ABI/INFORM Dateline™

“A leading source of international business information for more than 30 years, this product remains at the top of the list for the study of business conditions and industry-specific topics world-wide...”

—Gail Golderman & Bruce Connolly,
Library Journal, January 2009

RCL Resources for College Libraries™

CAREER RESOURCES

RCL: Career Resources is the result of a unique collaboration between Choice, a publishing division of ACRL, and bibliographic authority Bowker. Designed and developed for community, vocational, or technical college faculty and students, RCL: Career Resources is a comprehensive collection development and research tool featuring 4,700 carefully selected core titles in 57 career related subjects such as Allied Health, Building and Construction Trades, Engineering and Technology, and Graphic and Apparel Arts. Compiled by an expert editorial team of nearly 60 subject editors, the collection includes traditional monographs, textbooks and online resources.

For more information, visit www.rclinfo.net/career.

NEW! Digital Microfilm™

ProQuest Digital Microfilm™ is an exclusive new solution that provides Web-based viewing to a growing list of Newspaper in Microfilm titles. With the ease of remote access, students on and off campus can take advantage of high quality scans of The Wall Street Journal, Chicago Tribune, The New York Times—and many more—in their original full-image print format. An ideal distance learning tool and the perfect complement to text-only newspaper databases, the ProQuest Digital Microfilm™ solution provides these benefits:

- The newspaper in its original full-image format
- Anytime, anywhere access to your subscribed titles
- Browsible features by publication title, date, and page
- Functions to crop, print, email, and save articles, charts, photos, and graphs

No microfilm equipment required! Use ProQuest Digital Microfilm™ for Web-based, simultaneous user access to a growing list of Newspapers in Microfilm.

ProQuest Career and Technical Education

ProQuest Career and Technical Education is the definitive source for vocational information—featuring over 500 full-text titles, with full-text journals, trade publications, reference reports, books, and blogs being continually added. These timely new resources address the changing needs of today’s job searcher, featuring topics such as interviewing strategies, resume and cover letter writing, career profiles, industry outlooks, working after retirement, and surviving an economic slowdown.

ProQuest Nursing & Allied Health Source

ProQuest Nursing & Allied Health Source is invaluable for reference, study, and development for students and health care professionals. Providing abstracting and indexing for more than 780 titles—with over 650 in full text from 1986 forward—this unique database offers complete information on topics such as:

- General Nursing
- Geriatric Care
- Nutrition
- Obstetrics
- Oncology
- Pediatric Care
- Public Health
- Radiology
- Social Welfare
- And much more

Titles include:

- Rehabilitation Nursing
- Journal of Allied Health
- AORN Journal
- Journal of Gerontological Nursing
- Journal of Nursing Scholarship
- Oncology Nursing Forum
- Nursing Economics

Features include:

- World-class titles selected from quality lists, like Brandon Hill and the NAHRS Task Force on Mapping the Literature of Nursing
- Evidence-based content, including Evidence Summaries, Systematic Reviews, and Best Practice Information Sheets from the Joanna Briggs Institute
- Cultural Care reports from CultureVision, covering 30 ethnicities and 11 religions, which enhance diagnosis and treatment of patients with respect for their cultural differences
- Exclusive video nursing training from Medcom, Inc. Videos cover a range of topics and are broken down into chaptered clips. They are indexed for reliable search results, and can be viewed in document view or downloaded to your desktop for reference
- Access to over 12,000 nursing dissertations across disciplines—exclusively from ProQuest, and at no extra cost!
- User-friendly interface features such as ProQuest Smart Search, top journals search, and RSS feeds

Business

ProQuest Entrepreneurship

ProQuest Entrepreneurship bridges theory with practice by offering a central access point to a variety of discovery and advisory tools. Researchers at all levels can easily find answers to their questions using an interface designed specifically for entrepreneurs. Plus, ProQuest Entrepreneurship can be cross-searched with other ProQuest databases, such as ABI/INFORM, to provide users with an even wider set of results.

An unprecedented collection to assist all types of researchers:

- Video clips with advice from entrepreneurs
- Comprehensive startup toolkits including templates, how-to guides, and more
- Key journals, magazines, blogs, and trade publications
- Data and market research for assessing feasibility, new products and ideas
- 500,000 articles refreshed weekly, pulled from over 11,000 publications and covering over 150 subject areas related to entrepreneurship
- Excellent teaching resources, including e-books, business cases, and dissertations

ProQuest Entrepreneurship provides the latest, in-demand information from top publishers, including:

- Video clips from Vator.tv, Demo.com, Technology Review and eClipsNet—created with Cornell University
- e-Books from John Wiley & Sons (For Dummies book series), McGraw-Hill, and Access Intelligence
- High-quality company, market, and industry reports from Freedonia, Bizminer, New Strategist, Snapshot Series, Hoover's Company Records, the Direct Marketing Association, and others
- Scholarly publications, dissertations, and working papers covering entrepreneurship, innovation, product management, marketing, small business management, finance, and more

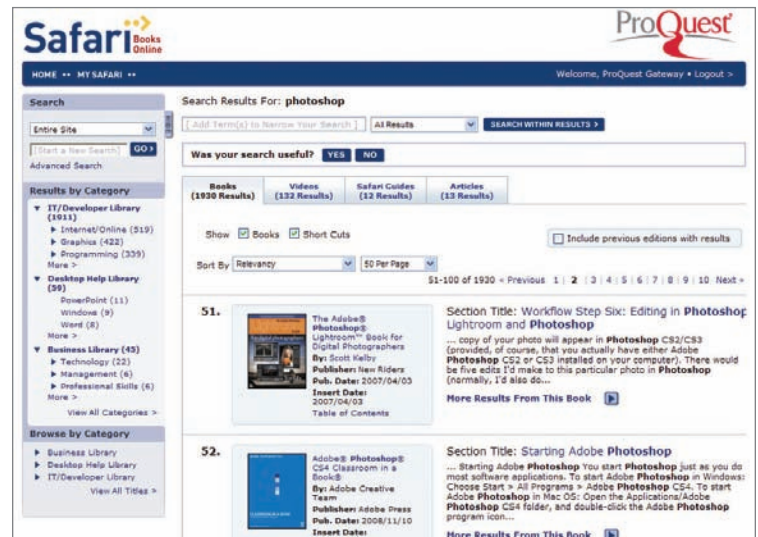

Safari® Tech Books Online™

Safari Tech Books Online provides a level of authority and flexibility unequaled by other IT collections. Featuring over 6,750 titles, the database covers the technologies most essential to users—including certification, enterprise computing, Java, Linux/Unix, web development, Windows, XML, and more.

NEW! Video training content now available

Community college libraries with certain Safari subscription packages can now upgrade their collection to include a growing assortment of over 220 world-class online instructional videos. This collection provides instruction on Web design, software development, and graphics tools and techniques, along with training videos for the most popular software packages:

- Acrobat®
- Illustrator®
- Photoshop®
- Mac OS® X
- Macromedia Dreamweaver®
- Macromedia Flash®
- Windows operating systems
- Microsoft® Office

Safari Tech Books Online features helpful result tabs, listing books, videos, Safari Guides, and article results for easy reference.

Each video is available in QuickTime®, Adobe® Flash®, and Windows Media. Videos are from leading publishers such as Addison-Wesley Professional, Cisco Press, lynda.com, New Riders, O'Reilly Media, Inc., Peachpit Press, Prentice Hall, Que, and Sams.

Acrobat, Illustrator, Flash, and Photoshop are trademarks of Adobe Systems Incorporated in the United States and/or other countries. Macromedia Dreamweaver and Macromedia Flash are registered trademarks of Macromedia, Inc. in the United States and/or other countries. Mac OS is a trademark of Apple Inc. Microsoft Office is a registered trademark of Microsoft Corporation in the United States and/or other countries.

Technology

ProQuest Computing™

ProQuest Computing delivers vital information from nearly 400 titles directly to your desktop, with over 310 in full text. Content is from scholarly journals and trade publications, as well as consumer titles. Subject coverage is broad, ranging from artificial intelligence to automation, and gaming to graphics, to networking, security, database management, and systems administration, along with information science and hardware.

“For those engaged in doing business and researching business, it’s a perfect ten...This will probably be one of your most-used, practical research tools. From me, it also gets a ‘wow!’”

—Cheryl LaGuardia, Library Journal, October 2008

Multidisciplinary

eLibrary®

Support next-generation research with a user-centric interface and custom Web features like slideshow makers and note-taking tools. eLibrary delivers more than 2,100 full-text periodicals and books—and over four million images, maps, websites, videos, and interactive simulations. History, literature, and science add-ons are also available.

“We like it [eLibrary] in particular because it includes content and tools that serve the needs of many of our developmental students ... Our college has also absorbed the adult basic education function for the county, and many of those students also find products like eLibrary to be very helpful.”

—Bob Baker, Pima Community College

ProQuest Central

ProQuest Central is the largest aggregated full-text database for libraries, totaling more than 12,000 titles (with over 9,000 titles in full text). A central resource for researchers at all levels, ProQuest Central provides access to millions of full-text articles from thousands of scholarly journals, covering over 160 subjects. ProQuest Central also offers information not available in other aggregated resources, such as:

- Over 600 full-text U.S., Canadian and international newspapers, including exclusive access to the full text of The Wall Street Journal and Los Angeles Times
- Nearly 30,000 full-text dissertations in business, psychology, physical sciences, health, education, and more
- Concise business information from nearly 9,000 market reports, including 43 industries in 40 countries

ProQuest Research Library™

From business, political science, and legal studies to literature, psychology, and consumer affairs, ProQuest Research Library covers a wide range of popular academic subjects. The database features a diverse mix of scholarly journals, trade publications, magazines, and newspapers. This combination of volume and scope makes it one of the most inclusive databases ProQuest has to offer, including over 4,000 titles, with more than 2,700 in full text.

RefWorks

Researchers can easily gather, store, manage, and share all types of information, as well as generate citations and bibliographies with RefWorks. It's Web-based, so it is easy to implement; and upgrades, online training, and support are free.

- Create a personal database of research information online
- Import references directly from hundreds of databases
- Format correct citations and bibliographies in seconds
- Manage various alerts with the integrated RSS reader
- Learn about authors via exclusive links to concise author profiles
- Log in from anywhere, and use it even without Internet access

Plus, it includes these powerful features:

- RefMobile for access from any mobile or smart phone, or PDA
- RefShare to easily share research information with collaborators
- RefGrab-It to quickly capture bibliographic data from any Web page

Diversity

2008 SIIA CODIE AWARDS FINALIST: BEST EDUCATION REFERENCE OR SEARCH SERVICE

CultureGrams™

CultureGrams offers concise, reliable country reports on the cultures of the world—from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe. Go beyond mere facts and figures as local experts document the details of each country's customs and traditions. Videos, slideshows, images, statistics, and local recipes offer unique, authentic materials that illustrate everyday life.

“For nearly thirty years CultureGrams has combed the world for qualified citizens in each nation who convey what life there is really like. No one makes the effort they do to ‘put the whole world in your hands.’”

—Jeffery Ringer, Director, Brigham Young University,
David M. Kennedy Center for International Studies

An elderly Balinese man wears a white head covering. Bali is predominantly Hindu, and to enter a Hindu temple, visitors must be appropriately dressed—long skirts for women and head coverings and long pants for men—and have rice placed on their foreheads. (Near Singaraja, Bali, Indonesia, August 2004)

Ethnic NewsWatch™

With unique, thought-provoking archival material back to 1977, Ethnic NewsWatch also offers a vast collection of nearly 1.67 million full-text articles from 286 publications, including newspapers, magazines, and journals, and many important Spanish-language publications. Ethnic NewsWatch provides views of current events, culture, and history on local, national, and international levels, as reported in the African-American, African, Caribbean, Arab and Middle Eastern, Asian American, European and Eastern European, Hispanic, Jewish, Native American, and multiethnic presses. New content is added weekly.

CHOICE 2008 OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE

GenderWatch™

This comprehensive full-text database of periodicals and other materials continues to grow with over 135,000 full-text articles from 248 publications—such as journals, magazines, newspapers, newsletters, regional publications, books, booklets and pamphlets, conference proceedings, government, and special reports, with new content added weekly.

The HistoryMakers™

This exceptional multicultural collection offers unique insights about the events that have impacted the lives of remarkable African-Americans. You will find 100 video interviews (each two to three hours in length) of contemporary African-Americans, many of whom were the first to break barriers in business, science, medicine, education, and government.

History

History Study Center™

History Study Center contains over 40,000 digitized documents of more than 500 historical topics worldwide, such as the war in Iraq, 2003–current; the Cuban Missile Crisis; the American Civil War; and the French Revolution. Five content areas that can be easily cross searched include:

- Study Units: Selected reference articles, parliamentary papers, newspaper articles, rare books, radio and television news, scholarship, contemporary journalism, historical documents, maps, images, video clips, and Web links on over 500 widely studied curriculum topics
- Historical Documents: Search thousands of primary source texts, including speech transcripts, newspaper articles, and official papers
- Maps & Reference: Over 25,000 articles from respected reference titles, historical atlases, and biographical dictionaries
- Journals: Cover-to-cover access to over 80 important periodicals to support the history curriculum
- Multimedia: Search thousands of historically relevant images and hundreds of video clips, all captioned to provide context, plus links to thousands of carefully selected Websites

Literature

Literature Online Reference Edition

A fully searchable, ever-growing collection of 237 literature journals, including 4,100 author biographies, 230 student guides, key reference guides, and several dictionaries of literary terms—plus Literature Online, featuring 357,000 full-text works and nearly 900 exclusive poetry readings on video.

Social Sciences

ProQuest Criminal Justice Periodicals Index™

The publications indexed in ProQuest Criminal Justice Periodicals Index (CJPI) provide research support for professionals in law enforcement, corrections administration, drug enforcement, rehabilitation, family law, and industrial security. The focus of most publications is practical, rather than theoretical. CJPI includes abstracts and indexing for more than 235 titles, as well as full-text and/or full-image for over 80 of those titles.

ProQuest Psychology Journals™

Providing full-text support for PsycINFO, ProQuest Psychology Journals offers more than 620 titles from specialist publishers, with over 520 in full text, dating from 1971. The collection encompasses a wide range of topics from leading publications covering psychology and psychosomatic studies. It is ideal for use by students, faculty, and allied health professionals. Titles are heavily cited and have a strong set of ISI impact factors, and coverage includes related disciplines. Publications include: The American Journal of Psychiatry, The American Journal of Geriatric Psychiatry, Annual Review of Psychology, Brain, Psychopharmacology, and Psychotherapy and Psychosomatics. ProQuest Psychology Journals also provides 4,000 full-text dissertations, representing a range of psychology disciplines.

ProQuest Social Science Journals

ProQuest Social Science Journals provides information on hundreds of topics, including addiction and area studies, criminology, family studies, policy and political sciences, and more. The database includes over 560 titles, with more than 330 available in full text.

2008 SIIA CODIE AWARDS FINALIST: BEST SOCIAL STUDIES INSTRUCTIONAL SOLUTION SIRS Researcher®

SIRS Researcher delivers the pros and cons on today's complex social issues with relevant, credible articles, opinions, and media. It provides not only the background necessary to understanding an issue's origins and key points of contention, but also the current analysis critical to investigating how the issue affects politics, personal beliefs, current events, and more. Also available: SIRS Government Reporter, covering all aspects of U.S. federal government, and SIRS Renaissance, featuring current perspectives on the arts and humanities.

Science

ProQuest Science Journals™

With over 740 publications, including nearly 615 in full text, ProQuest Science Journals offers the latest news, research, and developments across all applied and general science fields. ProQuest Science Journals provide strong content, with coverage of the hard sciences, and includes vocational studies content from trade and professional publications. More than 100 scientific disciplines are represented in the database, including:

- Acoustics
- Applied mathematics
- Artificial intelligence
- Earth science
- Electrical and electronic engineering
- Energy resources and research
- Marine technology
- Mathematics
- Medicine
- Oceanography
- Optical and neural computing
- Petroleum and gas

The screenshot shows the ProQuest website interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs for 'Basic', 'Advanced', 'Topics', 'Publications', and 'My Research'. Below this, it says 'Databases selected: ProQuest Science Journals'. The main content area is titled 'Document View' and includes a 'Back to Results' link. There are options to 'Print', 'Email', 'Copy link', 'Cite this', and 'Mark Document'. A 'Translate document from:' dropdown menu is set to 'Select language'. The article title is 'POPULAR science THIS MACHINE MIGHT* SAVE THE WORLD' by Josh Dean, published in Popular Science, New York, Jan 2009, Vol. 274, Iss. 1, pp. 64, 8 pgs. The abstract (summary) describes a diagram of a medieval torture device and a method for creating fusion energy. There are links for 'Jump to indexing (document details)' and 'Full Text (4217 words)'. A copyright notice for Bonnier Corporation is present. A 'Headnote' mentions that two desktop-printer engineers quit their jobs to search for the ultimate source of fusion energy. On the right side, there are 'Other available formats' (Abstract, Full Text - PDF (9 MB)) and a 'Find more documents like this:' section with a list of subjects: Fusion, Venture capital companies, Thermal printers, Radioactive wastes, Plasma, Physics, Magnetic fields, and Jet engines. There are 'Search' and 'Clear' buttons at the bottom of the subject list.

ProQuest Science Journals can be searched by topic and publication, with advanced search options for finding charts, diagrams, maps, tables, and more.

News Solutions

Library PressDisplay

Library PressDisplay provides your diverse users with earth-friendly, online access to today's newspapers from around the world in full-color, full-page format. The ever-expanding collection currently includes over 900 titles in 38 languages, from 79 countries. Just like the print edition, viewers can browse articles and other key content, such as pictures, advertisements, classifieds, and notices. The service also provides a 60-day backfile for most titles, and the functionality to perform keyword searches within or across newspapers.

Many titles feature SmartNavigation—sophisticated digital tools that make reading the news easy and interactive. Translate an article in up to 12 different languages, listen to the article read aloud, share articles with social media, comment, set up RSS feeds, explore links to related articles, and print articles in ASCII page-image format.

BOOKLIST EDITOR'S CHOICE 2007 "TOP OF THE LIST"

ProQuest Historical Newspapers™

With continuous runs of more than 30 newspapers spanning more than three centuries, ProQuest Historical Newspapers is the definitive digital archive. Over 20 million digitized pages of U.S. and international news provide firsthand accounts and opinions that bring history to life. Witness the daily lives of ordinary people and major news events through access to historical front pages, articles, editorials, photos, advertisements, wedding and engagement announcements, cartoons, birth and death announcements, book and film reviews, letters, and more. Key titles include The New York Times with Index, The Guardian and The Observer, the Chicago Defender, and the Los Angeles Times.

Every title in ProQuest Historical Newspapers allows researchers to:

- Uncover vital primary source material. Reports featured in the archive cover events such as the 1793 execution of Louis XVI, coverage of the American Civil War, as well as World Wars I and II, the Middle East peace process, and September 11, 2001.
- Cross search all titles in ProQuest Historical Newspapers program—the world's largest digital newspaper archive.
- Access full page and article images in easily downloadable PDFs. Researchers will benefit from the superior search platform, article display, and results functionality of the ProQuest historical platform.

ProQuest Newsstand™

ProQuest Newsstand enables libraries to customize a news solution from a collection of over 800 newspapers, including more than 550 full-text titles. Access high-quality titles known for their journalistic merit. The core of the database includes major national and international newspapers, such as: The Guardian, The London Times, The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, USA TODAY, Chicago Tribune, Los Angeles Times, Arizona Republic, The Globe and Mail, The Hindu, South China Morning Post, and the Washington Post.

Benefits of ProQuest Newsstand include:

- Exclusive access to 85 full-text newspapers from Gannett, plus seven military newspapers
- Exclusive access to the Los Angeles Times and co-exclusive access to The Wall Street Journal
- Quality controlled indexing to quickly find news, sports and business stories, reviews, editorials, obituaries, and letters to the editor
- Accurate cross-searching between newspaper titles to compare regional perspectives
- A significant backfile—coverage for many titles dates back to the 1980s and 1990s

Start here ... with your community college library, and ProQuest.

During an uncertain job market, lifelong learners, as well as the traditional student population, are seeing the benefits of community colleges—including evening and weekend class schedules, trade-specific training, and local access—resulting in increased enrollment. To learn more about ProQuest products that can help support your unique needs, visit www.proquest.com to request a free product trial. Or, contact a ProQuest Account Representative at (800) 521-0600, x3344 or at pqsales@proquest.com.

ProQuest®
Start here.